Hugh McLellan is a partner in the Vancouver law firm of McLellan Herbert Locke. Hugh was called to the Bar in July 1983 and practices exclusively in the areas of Wills and Estates planning and litigation and Elder Law.

Hugh will discuss the current state of the law in B.C. with respect to aging Canadians and some of the legal issues most commonly faced by the elderly. Capacity, undue influence, elder abuse and financial fraud will be addressed by Hugh and he will discuss the manner in which elders can be protected.

Hugh is a past Chair of the Canadian Bar Association National Elder Law Section and a past Chair of the CBA-BC Elder Law Subsection. Hugh has written numerous articles on estate litigation and elder law and is a frequent lecturer to the Professional Legal Training Program, the People's Law School and Continuing Legal Education. He was awarded the Community Service Award by the CBA for his work groups supporting mentally challenged citizens. Among many memberships, Hugh is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and is also an associate editor of the Estates & Trusts Reports. He is a contributing editor of Financial & Estate Planning for the Mature Client in B.C. and a contributor to the Annotated B.C. representation Agreement Act, Adult Guardianship Act and related Statutes.

Please join us for this informative discussion.
