Joel Bakan, a Professor of Law and Author, will speak on his 2020 award-winning book and documentary film, The New Corporation, his case against X/Twitter for censoring the film, and issues around free speech, truth, and social media that the latter case raises.

The New Corporation book and film, of which Joel was writer and co-director, are sequels to his earlier book and film, The Corporation. The new works expose how major global companies are desperately rebranding themselves as socially responsible, and why that could threaten democracy.

Joel is a UBC Distinguished University Scholar and a Professor at the Peter A. Allard School of Law. He writes and researches in the areas of Constitutional Law, socio-legal studies, legal theory and economic law. He has law degrees from Oxford, Dalhousie and Harvard. He studied at Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar and served as Law Clerk in 1985 for Chief Justice Brian Dickson of the Supreme Court of Canada. He joined the Law Faculty in 1990 as Associate Professor after a year's visit from Osgoode Hall Law School, where he had been an Assistant Professor since 1987. Joel currently teaches Constitutional Law, Contracts, and socio-legal courses.
